THE PRESIDENT ACCEPTS.

HE WILL VISIT ST. LOUIS THE FIRST WEEK IN OCTOBER.

The St. Louis Delegation, Headed By Mayor Francis, Calls on the President and Presents Him With the Second Invitation to Visit Their City.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The delegation from St. Louis, which arrived last night to invite the President and Mrs. Cleveland to that city, called by appointment at the White House at 12 m. to-day. The delegation was ushered into the library, where the president received them, Mayor Francis, of St. Louis, immediately stepped to the front and made the following address:

"Mr. President—It was my fortune sixty days ago accompanied by twenty-five representive citizens of St. Louis to supple ment and earnestly endorse in behalf of the people of that city an invitation previously extended to you to attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republio to be held in the city of St. Louis during the last week of September next. The success of that mission in eliciting from you a favorable response was highly gratifying to the people of St. Louis and of Missouri. The disappointment later, consequent upon your letter of decimation, was deep and ail prevailing, but co-extensive with it was a sentiment of sincere approval of the patriotio motives which had prompted you to such

"The citizens of St. Louis, Irrespective of party, nationality or race, in meeting assembled the day after your letters were received, with one voice enthusiastically resolved to extend to yourself and your estimable wife a cordial invitation to visit their city during the first week of October next and instructed their mayor with a committee of fifty citizens to convey and deliver the same in person to you. Assemblages of like character were held in aimost every county in the state indorsing and emphasizlng the action taken in St. Louis. Delegates were appointed at these meetings to proceed to the capital of the nation and there to express to the chief executive ln a manner as effective as words and form would permit the warmth of the greeting which awaits him from the people of Missouri in the metropolis of their state.

'We are here, therefore, in obedience to the mandates of our people, representing ali sections of Missouri, her commercial, manufacturing and agricultural interests, and reflecting the desire of every city, town and hamiet within her borders to urge you and Mrs. Cleveland to favor us with your presence. This invitation emanates from the people, your sovereign and ours, and not from any organization, civil or military, political or religi us. It is the spontaneous Tuesday, October 2. "I do not know exoutburst of a community, that never suffers its reputation for hospitality to be aspersed. its reputation for hospitality to be aspersed. he added, laughing, "but perhaps he may It is a vigorous and feeling protest from a be induced to delay his coming until you repersions have against the abeliant delay." generous host against the absolute declina- arrive." "Our appearance before you in largely increased numbers, coming as we do from the most remote sections of the state, furnishes some indication of the feeling prevailing at our homes. The people of the west rever the high office of chief magistrate of the nation, and their loyalty and patriotism impel them to honor him who fills that exalted position, Especially is it so when the man who fills it performs his duties with the wisdom, fearlessness and patriotism which characterize your administration. No organization however strong and no occurrence, however important will be required to add interest to the occasion of your presence. The people of Missouri and of the west wili congregate in vast numbers to meet and welcome you ln the commercial centre of the Mississippi val-

"We have designated the first week in October as the time for your visit, because we thought that time would be most convenient and agreeable for you; because it is the season when our fall festivities are at their height; when our trade pageant gives its annual display; when the mysterious Veiled Prophet, surrounded with Oriental splendor, makes his autumnal visit; when our streets are brilliantly illuminated by arches of biazing light and on a scale of magnificence never approached; when our exposition and our agricultural and mechanical fair, each the greatest of its kind on the continent, are in progress; and because finally, it is a season when the sterling yeomanry of the land, the bulwark of the republic and the greatest contributors to its wealth can with least detriment to their agricultural interests, assemble in our city to do you honor.

If, however, another time would be better suited to your inclination or engagements, your welcome would be none the less genuine, The city of St. Louis, the state of Missouri and the people of the west say to the president of the United States, Honor us with your presence,' and to Grover Cleveland, the honest, fearless man who so ably fills that high office, 'Come and be our

At the conclusion of the address, Mayor Francis presented, an elaborately, engraved invitation to the president, which read as

"GREETINGS-The people of St. Louis pursuant to a resolution unanimously adopted at a public meeting held hy them at the Merchant's exchange, in said city, on July 8, 1887, and presided over by the mayor of the city, do now respectfully and earnestly invite the president of the United States and Mrs. Cleveland to visit St. Louis as the guests of the city for the week commencing October 2, 1887, and in doing so they beg leave to urge on the president their desire to give him a welcome that shall demonstrate their love for him as a public officer and a man.

"DAVID R. FRANCIS, "Mayor and Chairman, "CHARLES N. MITCHELL,

"Secretary, and ninety-two others," Mayor Francis' remarks, which were made off hand, were repeatedly interrupted by applause, which was redoubled when the address was formally presented to the president with the terse remark that it was from THE ESCAPE OF A BOODLER what they thought the greatest city of the continent to him whom they thought the greatest president of the United States. The president also speaking extemporaneously, replied as follows:

"MR. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN-My reply to your very complimentary and hearty address shall be very brief and very agreeable. At the time you did me the honor to invite me to your city on the occasion of your last visit, I felt quite contrary to my expectation when I first met you, that it was an invitation which ought not to be declined. I felt Impressed at the moment that you had something there in St. Louis of which you were deservedly proud, that you had a city and a people and interests there which it was only right and just you should earnestly desire that the chief magistrate of the nation should see and appreciate. What has happened since has in no wise hampered my desire to see these things and to become better acquainted with the hospitable and good peopie whose good feeling and kinduess you manifest. It was not at all necessary, in order to convince me of your good falth and sincerity, that so many of your good people should at this most uncomfortable season of the year come here, and yet you don't know how much it pleases me to see you all. The desire to come to you has grown with every day, and I do not see how I can do otherwise now than accept your invitation." When the applause which greeted this announcement had subsided the President, reverting to his previous acceptance, said: "The arrangement made before was one which was entirely free from any compilcations, and which presented no llkelihood of clashing with any of my other arrangementa. You are aware, I suppose, that I have agreed to visit the city of Atlanta early in October. This is an agreement of long standing, entered into before the closing of this session of congress. I must go there. I only speak of this because when we sit down to determine upon the day when I can visit you this must be taken into account, and it is because of this and some other considerations of a like character which I will not enter into that I am prevented at this time from fixing upon a precise day for my visit. That, however, is a matter that can be arranged afterwards. We shall have considerable time to look around us and I shali be glad to meet or correspond with any of your citizens whom you may designate, so as to fix a day and avoid uncertainty as much as possible. I am a little in doubt about the exact time, but the thing must be done." This remark which was made with great emphasis elicited loud and prolonged applause. A pleasant informal conversation followed. The president asked what day the fair opened and what day the parade took place. Mayor Francis replied that the fair opened on Monday, October 2, and the Veiled Propiet was expected to appear on actly how we can communicate with him," both at the same time would be a little less trouble to be expected.

ant you to forget Mrs. Cleveland," added the mayor.

"I do not think she will let me forget that," the president responded.

A invitation was extended to the members of the cabinet and their wives to accompany the president, and the pleasant interview terminated.

BURNING HORSEFLESH.

A Fierce Fire in New York Burns Up Forty-Eight Horses-Other Losses.

New York, July 2d.-A fire broke out at 5 o'clock this morning in the buildings Nos. 48 to 49 West Thirteenth street, in which 100 horses were stabled, and forty-eight of them were burned to death. The building is occupied by Fleischmann's Vienna bakery. The pasement is used as a mixing room, the first floor as a storage house over the wagons and the second and third floors were fitted up with stails occupied by the 100 horses used in delivering bread throughout the city. Beven stablemen were asleen in the second floor of the building, and another man was at work attending the horses on the third

The sleeping men were almost suffocated by the smoke that roiled up from the basement before they were aroused by the trampling of the horses. A man named Healy was the first to awake. He was so terrified by the blinding smoke and kicking and trampling of the horses that he sprang out of a window. He landed upon his shoulder, sustaining severe injuries. The man on the third floor and the other six stablemen rushed down stairs and managed to reach the street in safety. When the firemen arrived the flames had eaten their way through the building. The horses were whinnying with terror and rushing to and fro on the upper floors.

In the rear of the building on Fourteenth street fronting Union square are several large dry goods stores filled with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods. A third alarm was sent out and the firemen set to work to confine the flames to the building in which the fire broke out and to rescue the Imprisoued horses. The horses burned were valued at $14,000. The stock, harness, wagons and machinery destroyed was valued at about $20,000. The damage to the building is placed at $10,000.

EX-WARDEN M'GARIGLE SUDDENLY LEAVES CHICAGO.

The Successful Flight of the Man Who Had Beaten Cook County Ont of a Large Sum of Money and Had Already Been Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

CHICAGO, July 26.—A sensation was caused here early Sunday morning by the discovery that W. J. McGarigle, ex-warden of the county hospital, who was recently convicted of being concerned in the wirolesale robbery of the county, had escaped. McGarigle and Engineer McDonald, of the hospital, had been jointly convicted and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Judge Shepherd had refused to admit him to bail, and they were in custody awaiting the resuit of a motion for a new trial. Between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night Sheriff Matson took McGarigle to the house of the latter, where a conference was to be heid with States Attorney Grinnell, between whom and the escaped boodler there appears to have been several conversations of late.

While at his home the prisoner decided to take a bath and retired for that purpose. After waiting for some time the sheriff became uneasy, and on going to the bath room found that his man had fled. The police were at once notified and search was begun, but so far nothing has been heard of the fugitive's whereabouts. The facts of the escape were not learned by the newspapers until late Sunday morning. There are rnmors to the effect that McGarigle has been spirited away in accordance with a plan of the states attorney, but for what purpose has not been made clear.

As the house is near the take the supposition is that McGarigie was put onto a tug by his friends and is now on his way to Canada via Lake Michlgan. It is even hinted that the boodier was abducted, as it was well known he intended to "squeal" and implicate some prominent officials in the crookedness which has cost Cook county's treasury over a milion dollars.

The escape of ex-Warden McGarigle was the topic at police headquarters and the sheriff's office to-day. At neither piace, however, could anything be learned regarding the wherenbouts of the fugitive. The unsuccessful search which began early Sunday morning has resuited in nothing. There is not a ciew as to the direction taken by the notorions boodier, nor has anything been discovered to settle the question wifether he had started for some foreign shore or was still in hiding within the city.

Sheriff Matson was down at his office early, almost before any of his assistants had arrived. On his usually smiling and goodnatured face there was an expression of the deepest gloom. He looked as though he had not slept since he opened the bath room door at the McGarigle residence and first realized that his bird had flown.

"There is nothing new this morning," he said to a reporter for the United Press. "I have heard nothing." "What is your idea as to McGarigie's whereabouts f'

"I haven't any idea about it at all. I have no theories as to the manner of his escape, or whether he is in Canada or still in the city." States Attorney Grinneii came in to inquire if anything had been heard of the missing man. He had a talk with the sheriff In the latter's private office. Mr. Grinnell looked worried, and refused to express any might be found.

There was a rumor about the government building that McGarigle had been captured in Wisconsin or off the Wisconsin shore. Another rumor current was that he had reached the Mackiuaw Straits. This last one was discredited by Inspector Benfield, as no vessel could make the trip in time.

Canada Seizes Fishing Boats.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., July 26.-A telegram was received to-day from United States Consul Carleton at Souris, P. E. I., stating that the seines and boats with all the crews of the schooners J. H. France and Argonaut were seized yesterday off East Point, P. E. I., by the Dominion cutter Critic. It appears that the vessel boats were close in shore when the cutter approached. The vessels cleared out and escaped, but the boats were seized. There was only one man left on each of the vessels, and, it is thought they will be seized before getting home, as they will have to put in for assistance.

G. A. R. Resolutions.

Mr. VERNON, Ind., July 26.-At the regnlar meeting of Harrow Post, No. 19, G. A. R., this city, Saturday night, resolutions were adopted denouncing certain individuals whose language caused the president to withdraw his acceptance of the invitation to visit St. Louis during the G. A. R. encampment, and declaring that they were guilty of violating the rules of the order and should suffer the same condemnation as those who endeavored to prevent President-elect Lincoln from passing through Baltimore on his way to Washington in 1861.

Passenger Train Ditched.

Hudson, Wia., July 20.—A passenger train from Duluth, on the northern division of the Omaha road, was ditched at Cumberland at 2 o'clock this morning, burying beneath the engine John Donohue, engineer, of this city, and a fireman named Webster, of Altoona. Several employes and passengers were injured but their names are not known. The accident was caused by a north bound train which neglected to closs the switch, loss is estimated at from $100,000 to $175,000. The bodies of the engineer and fireman have

The Highest Water Ever Known in New England.

DOVER, N. H., July 26.—Ali the rivers in this part of the State are higher now than ever known before. The freshet in the Lamprey river, New Market, this morning carried away a large part of the old dam of the New Market cotton-mills, also the founda-tion of No. 1. picker-mills. The engines and derrick constructing the new dam were swept away. The loss can not be estimated at present. A dispatch from South Berwick says five members of a fire engine company there and a horse while en route to a fire Saturday night were prostrated by lightning, the men being insensible for some time and one of them having his feet burned. The rivers are all still rising.

At Naushua.

NASHUA, N. H., July 26.—The storm which cleared off last night has been unprecedented in this vicinity, and the Nashua river has risen very fast during the night and is rapidly increasing in volume. The rainfall for the past forty-eight hours was nearly eight inches. Sunday's rainfall was the greatest ever known. There is a 500-foot washout on the Cheshire railroad two miles below Fitzwiiiianu.

At Port Jarvis.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., July 26.-At 7:30 o'clock iast night a washout occurred on the Erie road near here. The east' track was carried away just as a train loaded with cheese was passing. Twenty-one cars were totally wrecked. The engine and several cars passed.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 28.—Lee Sheifenberger, who was in jail here under sentence of death for fataliy beating his nine-year-old giri iast faii, was lynched Sunday morning. The party which did the work was composed of determined farmers from the vicinity of Shellenberger's former home. They organized near the cemetery, south of the city, and at about 1:30 a. m. marched to the jaii. The guards were entirely taken by surprise and were easily overcome. A number of the moh surrounded the court house square, standing guard while others entered the building and tried to batter in the iron door on the south side of the jail, but it resisted so firmly that the sharlif's office, which is situated directly over the prisoner's ceii, was broken into and an opening forced through the floor, which consumed nearly half an hour, until the cell was reached.

At 3:30 a shout told that the crowd had secured Sheiierbenger, and a minute afterward he was brought out of the front door, apparently haif carried and half pushed. Some one was in a tree immediately in front of the court house. In an instant the rope was ready. Shellenberger seemed incapabie of speech. Then there was a shout, a opinion as to where the celebrated fugitive long pull and the body was danging in the Charged With Train Wrecking. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 26.—George H. Whituey, a locomotive engineer, arrested here yesterday by Detective Frank Tuff, charged with wrecking a Missouri Pacific train near Independence in the spring of 1886, while the great southwest strike was in progress. Whitney is charged with a deliberate attempt to wreck a passenger train which was frustrated by reason of an extra freight, of which the wreckers knew nothing, being put on airead of the passenger. Whitney came here a few days ago from Birmingham, Ala., where he had been charged with burglary. He denies all knowledge of the wreck. Other arrests are expected.

Forged Pension Draft.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 26.—While in Washington Oscar J. Harvey, the defaulting treasury official, acted as the attorney for a Mrs. Bronson, and secured for her a pension amounting to over $1,730. The draft for the money was made out at the sub-treasury in Philadelphia, and signed by Pension Agent W. W. Davis. Commissioner of Pensions Black, of Washington, was led to believe that the pension was secured by fraudulent means, and on Saturday he sent Special Officer Birtseye here to notify the banks not to cash the draft. The draft was found in the possession of Miss E. Harvey, a sister of the forger.

DO YOUR DUTY.

The State Central Committee Appeals to All Democrats to Vote Next Monday, and Insure a Glorious Victory for the Party.

The following circular has been received from headquarters of the Democratic State Central Committee, with a request for publication:

LEXINGTON, KY., July 23rd, 1887.

To the Democrate of Kentucky: On the eve of the election we appeal to you. Immediately after the adjournment of the convention, we organized; and after full consultation with the candidates, the faithful and able Chairman of the former Committee and other leading Democrals from different parts of the State, a plau of campaign was agreed upon, which has been carried out.

Animated hy a desire to have the full vote polled, every effort has been made to aronse the party, compose local troubles, secure the attention and awaken the luterest of the people and perfect the organization. Our success has exceeded our anticipations.

The gentlemen nominated for the various offices are indeed worthy of the coufidence reposed lu them-clean, able and competent. The State may felicitate herself that her executive affairs will be under the control of on trial at the har of public opinon, and our mangement of the State for the past twentytwo years has been abusively challenged. Dr. Standiford was a native of Jefferson County, and was about fifty-six or fifty-seven years of age. He was one of Louisville's wealthiest capitalists, having amassed his fortune to a large extent from railroad enterprises in which he was interested years ago. At the same time he was one of the Fall City's most publicspirited citizens. One of his richest glfts to that city was his recent donation of busbes and in every secluded spot. Gamseveral hundred acres of land for park blers from Louisville, Cincinnati, Harpurposes.

Dr. Standiford was a prominent Democratic candidate for U.S. Senator to succeed Senator Beck, having been engaged in an active canvass for the past year or viving him.

Those Car-Shops.

The narrow mind of some Covington people toward the new railroad has resulted disastrously to that city, says the Newport correspondent of the Enquirer. It was the intention of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company and Mr. Huntington to build the new machine shops of the railroad in that city. Every little thing, however, that the railroad company wanted the wolves over there would yell scheme and monopoly. The railroad company advertised for bids to erect the new shops in Covington, but, seeing that the people were not friendly to them they withdrew the advertisement. The shops were to cost about $300,000, and would employ over five hundred men. Mr. Huntington and a party of gentlemen have purchased a tract of land in Campbell County on the line of the new road, and a new town will be started there, and the shops located in that place. The new town is about six miles above Dayton.

If the correspondent above mentioned is correct in his information, the car-shop question is settled so far as Augusta, Dover, Maysville and other places along the route are concerned.

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I nave tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of purc and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances.

E. G. Love, Ph.D.",

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. "H. A. Mott, Ph.D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra aiba, or any other injurions substance. Немки Моктом, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."

"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome. "S. Dana Hayes, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country. No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of NOTE-The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedier only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.

* While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.

CRIMES ACT PROCLAIMED.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULT OF THE DUBLIN DELIBERATIONS.

The Counties and Towns Where Coercion Will Be Enforced-A Great Gloom Cast Over Ireland-The Calamity Which is

Bound to Overtake the Peasants. London, July 26. As a result of the conference on the subject of the coercion bill and its enforcement between the lord lieutenant, Mr. Balfour; Lord Ashbourne, lord chancellor of Ireland, and Gen. Sir Robert H. Buller, under secretary for Ireland, the following counties have been fully proclaimed: Kings, Leltrim, Longford, Sllgo, Galway, Mayo, Roscommon, Clare, Kerry, Cork, Limerick, Kilkenny, Queens, Tipperary, Waterford, Wexford, Donegal and Monaghan. The counties partially proclaimed are Armagh, Carlow, Down Cavana, Dublin, Kildare, Fermanagh, Londonderry, South Meath, Tyrone, Westmeath and Wicklow. The following towns have also been proclaimed: Dublin, Cork, Limerick, Waterford, Londonderry, Klikenny, Drogheda, Belfast, Carrickfergus and Gal-

"Poor Ireland," said a prominent Nationalist M. P. to me after hearing of the proclamation of the crimes act. "The blow has descended at last, and for the increased crime, for all the consequences of the ill-advised act, for all the violence, for all the lawlessness it may provoke and induce Eugland makes herself responsible."

A great gloom is cast over Ireland. Many of the peasants do not understand the import of the new measure. They know not that the dreaded crimes act has been passed, and in a blind sort of way realize that they are threatened with some new calamity. Evictions they know how to fight against, but they are not prepared for the subtletles of a measure which delivers them for judgment into the bands of those whom they have been taught to regard as enemies. There is a great feeling throughout the Green Isle.

The press, that is the press without English tendencies, denounces the act as unjust, and the language of some prominent journals might also be construed into inclting the people to revolution. That they do not do this fully and freely and give vent to the sentiments of which they would be glad to relieve themselves is due more to the remembrance of England's strength and power and of Ireland's feebleness than to any feelings of loyalty to the Island across the channel. The exhibition at Spithead on Saturday is one calculated to make the hottest head pause and gnard his words. And they further remember a threat that was openly expressed in the house of commons not long ago to the effect that England would not hesitate to use any means in her power to "convince" Ireland that coercion was right. Much as revenge might be sought for revenge's sake, the more thoughtful in Ireland see the only remedial relief for their country's woes in the very injustice of the act and its equally unjust and severe work-

They turned to wise and not unfrlendly heads in England and to the popular feeling which is undoubtedly strong and which is daily showing itself and being felt at the polls. That the right will conquer in the end, even the peasants will feel the effects of the new act cannot cease to hope. At the many indignation meetings held to condemn the act cooler minds have been preaching prudence. Of course the leaders know that the act is almed, in a great measure, at the Irish National league, but according to general belief, this argus-eyed and hydra-headed organization cannot easily be crushed and it can take good care of itself.

Member of Parliament Dead.

LONDON, July 26.-Mr. Robert Verdin, Liberal Unionist, M. P., for the Northwich division of Cheshire, is dead. The Glad-stonians are confident of winning the seat in the election to fill the vacancy. In the last election Verdin defeated Mr. J. Tomlinson Brunner, Giadstonian candidate, by a vote of 4,416 against 3,758 cast for Mr. Brunner.

Beecher's Successor. LONDON, July 26.—Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D., preached his farewell sermon in the City Temple Sunday, and announced that this was the last service in which he would take part before he went to Brooklyn.

The Thistle Satis. GREENOCK, July 26.—The yacht Thistle sailed from this port for New York to-day. A heavy gale prevailed and the yacht had her storm sail set. She carried a crew of twenty-one.

Pawder Mill Explosion. THOMASTON, Me., July 26.—The Warren powder mill blew up this morning at 8 o'clock. They had started up the kernelling mill, iu which were thirty kegs of powder three minutes previous to the explosion, George Shepherd, a workman, aged thirty years, was instantly killed, being literally torn to pieces. The explosion was felt for miles around. The same mill was blown up

British Government Quarantines. OTTAWA, Ont., July 26.—It will be a matter of important interest to United States exporters of horses, cattle and swine into Manitoba, the Northwest territories and British Columbia, to know that the dominion government has imposed quaratine regulations which preclude absolutely the importation in those sections of the country of any cattle except for breeding purpose, and they only to be imported subject to the most stringent quarantine inspection. All horses and hogs will be subject to twenty-

Father and Son Drowned. Snow Hill, Md., July 26.—Capt. Job Johnson and his ten-year-old son were drowned at Pocomoke City yesterday. Capt. Johnson, with the boy in his arms, at-tempted to jump from the draw bridge to his schooner, in the Pocomoke river. He miscalculated the distance, and they were plunged into the river.

Suicide on Account of Business Troubles. WHEELING, W. Va., July 26.—Lewis Woodmansee, for thirty years one of the proprietors of the Grant House, this city, committed sulcide at bis home, just across the river, this morning, while suffering mental aberration caused by business troubles.

Died at the Age of 112. HAYDENVILLE, O., July 26.-Joseph Cheshire died here on Saturday evening, aged 112 years. He was the oldest man in this part of the state. KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

A Decrease of Membership in the Eastern

States. NEW YORK, July 196. - A Providence, R I., special says: The announcement of the reports of the Massachusetts Knights of Labor showing that the order has lost largely in membership creates no surprise in this state, where the order has exercised but little influence on the course of, industry for many months. When the manufacturers of Rhode Island organized for self-protection about a year ago, they resolved that there should be no interference by Knighte of Labor with their business, and to this resolve they have strictly adhered. The manufacturers have in every instance refused to arbitrate or listen to any suggestion to arbitration by committees of the Knights of Labor, and they have given unequivocal evidence of their purpose to adhere to this line

Thus while there has been no lockout of Knights of Labor as such, membership in the order is not a recommendation to promotion in the mills, and the acceptance of office in a Knight of Labor assembly is considered as standing in the way, not exactly of employment, but of an employer's favor and confidence. This is the actual situation in the great industries of this state, and apparently also of Massachusetts, and it is not surprising, therefore, that there is a decrease in membership.

Politics in Labor Arbitration. LYNN, Mass., July 26.—The first instance wherein manufacturers have repudiated the board of arbitration has occurred here. For three weeks an eudeavor has been made to adjust wages at the factory of Rumsey Brothers, who refused to reorganize the board, believing that there were too much policy and politics controlling its members. The firm has ordered to refer the disputed question to three disinterested men. This plan is satisfactory to the knights.

Ice Men Strike. NEW YORK, July 26.-The drivers and helpers employed by the Mutual Benefit Ice company struck successfully this morning for an advance of wages to $15 and $12 respectfully. Heretofore they received $12 and $10 a week.

Stanyard Sentenced to Death. Youngstown, O., July 26.—Ebenezer Stanyard, the murderer of bls sweetheart, Alice Haucox, was to-day sentenced by Judge Johnston to be hanged November 18. When sentenced had been pronounced the prisoner simply asked: "Is that all?"

Jeff. Davis Indorses Temperance. New Orleans, July 26.—Jefferson Davis was at the seashore camp-ground, on the gulf coast, yesterday, where the Southern Methodists have had a religious encampment for the past ten days, Beauvoir, his home, is only a few miles distant. Each year he receives an invitation to attend with his family. Yesterday, after Mrs. Sarah F. Chapin had made a rousing temperance speech, Mr. Davis approached her and said; "I Indorse every word you have uttered and am heartily in sympathy with your great cause." He left for home wearing the silver badge of the W. C. T. U.

Heavy Mortality Among Children. SALEM, Iii., July 26.—Dysentery, cholera infantum and other kindred diseases have for several weeks prevalled among the children in this vicinity. At Odln many have dled, and in the townships of Raccoon and Haines the fatality has been great. Thus far the scourge bas not visited Salem, and the citizens are taking every precaution. Mayor has issued a proclamation urg ing the citizens to cleanse and purify their premises and surroundings.

Saved His Brother, but Died Himself. NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 96.—Last night about 10 o'clock Thomas Whitten, aged nineteen, was shot and killed by Mike Rey-noids, a glass-worker. Peleg Whitten and others were visiting a disreputable house, when a quarrel arose between Reynolds and Peleg. Reynolds drew a pistol and began shooting. Thomas Whitten rushed between them to save his brother and was instantly killed. James Thorton, a bystander, was also shot. Reynolds claims self-defense.
